

Concentration of Editorial control of, and influence over, multiple media entities (newspapers, cable/TV stations, Radio) in one city or geographical area will be contra-beneficial to the public interest and will allow easier dissemination of slanted views and misinformation. Market diversity is preferred with healthy competition for viewers and advertisers.